First Quarter GENRE READING

CIVIL WAR HISTORICAL FICTION/NON-FICTION OR SOCIAL JUSTICE

Author: Demitria Lunetta
Please explain why this book fits the genre (Civil War Historical Fiction/Non-Fiction Or Social quarter's reading: In the After is a book about Social Justice. The main characer Amy faces adverseray in the myriad of policies surrounding New Hope and Fort Black, and the book shows her struggles living with strong adversary. In New Hope, she was given little to no choice about anything in her life, she couldn't choose the clothes she wore from her where little sister could llive. In Fort Black, she was looked down upon for being a women in a prison, and they had few rights and were considered property. It qualifies as Social Justice because she prevails against this Social Injustice to show that she will not submit to anyone.
Explain how reading this book allowed you to Read with Joy:
I read this book/passage within the last 60 days for the first time.
MJ Roland 9/23/23 (Student signature) (Date) My child read this book/passage within the last 60 days for the first time.